PREFACE:

One of the main functions of higher education is research. Research contributes to the existing field of knowledge. It may also contribute to institutionalise ideas. Society's progress, to a great extent, depends upon the quality of research in a society. A proper theoretical orientation of the work is needed to arrive at a desired goal. Research Methodology would provide the needed orientation to undertake research in a particular field. It is hoped that the proposed workshop would provide the needed orientation to the students/research scholars.
